Sir

I am sent as a prisoner of war when indeed I have been a soldier and never expect to take a part in the war neither for nor against it. Now I happened to be taken, I had a nephew at Island Ten who was in very bad health, and I had come up with a petition to get him discharged from the service, and while there, was taken with the main body. If there is any law relative to my release I would be glad to have your Respectfully returned to the Chairman,

Oklahoma Board of Pension Commissioners, Oklahoma City.

There are no rolls on file in this office of Company B, 54th Alabama Infantry, C.S.A., nor has any record been found of a man named Hugh H. Mauldin, or similarly named, as a member of this company.

The Confederate records show, however, that the 4th Reg't Confederate Infantry was captured at Island No. 10 April 8, 1862, and that after exchange in the latter part of 1862, the companies composing it were reorganized and transferred to other commands, Company B, 4th Confederate Infantry, becoming Company B, 54th Alabama Infantry, C.S.A., for which latter company there are no rolls on file.

Said records further show that one H. H. Mauldin, private, Company B, 4th Confederate Infantry (which reg't was also known as the 1st Alabama, Tennessee and Mississippi Infantry), C.S.A., enlisted Sept. 20, or 27, 1861. On the company roll for November and December, 1861, last on file, he was reported present.

The Union prisoner of war records show that one H. H. Mauldin (surname also borne as Mauldin and as Magill), private, Company B, 1st Alabama, Tennessee and Mississippi Infantry, C.S.A., was captured April 8, 1862,

... and that he was ...
... by the ...

General.

Being one of the few Officers of Col. Stephens Baker's Regt (1st Ala. Inf. & 1st Regt of Volunteers) who escaped from Island No. 10. I beg leave to report myself together with my reasons for not having done so earlier; I was sick in bed, scarcely able to get up at the time that General Mahan issued the order for the sick to escape, and had to remain till after the Sumner was made, being at a private house was not discovered by them, I crossed Redfoot Lake on a raft constructed of logs and being compelled to remain on the raft one night with my feet in water they came near being frost-bitten I am just now getting able to report for duty - I was the 1st Lt of Co. F in the above Regt. Respectfully - James R. Mills

*This company subsequently became Company F, 4th Regiment Confederate Infantry.

The 4th Regiment Confederate Infantry (also known as the 1st Regiment Alabama, Tennessee and Mississippi Infantry) was formed about December 9, 1861, with ten companies: four from Alabama, two from Mississippi, and four from Tennessee. It was captured at Island No. 10, April 4, 1862, and after exchange in September 1862, the companies were re-organized and transferred to other commands. Companies A, G, H, and K became (2d) Companies I, A, C, and D, respectively, of the 42d Regiment Tennessee Infantry, and Companies B, E, F, and J became Companies C, G, E, D, F, and H, respectively, of the 54th Regiment Alabama Infantry.

Sir

I am constrained by long protracted illness to resign the command of my Company. I therefore enclose now, most respectfully, my resignation and ask its acceptance by the Department and an unconditional discharge from the service. I make this brief statement of the grounds upon which my resignation is based.

I am Captain of Co F in the 1st Ala, Tenn & Miss Regt^d Commanded by Col Alpheus Baker.
This command has passed through the winter & spring campaign at New Madrid & Island 10 up to the time of its capture by the enemy.

My Company is known in your office as the "Judge Moore Guards" from Ala, and was not attached to the Regt till last December You will see from the Muster Roll that we were mustered in for 12 Mo. Oct 13/61

Under these circumstances, I am satisfied that it is my duty to surrender. Should it be necessary I can procure the Certificate of my physicians showing the condition of my health, and my permanent disability for Military Duty.

No difficulty or delay can arise in regard to my account, as the Government has not yet paid my Company any thing for their services, and they owe for nothing but clothing, which they have consumed.

I forward this directly to you, for this reason, that my Colonel Brig Gen & Major Gen Machell are all taken prisoners, and I am not attached to any Command at this time. My acct can be adjusted with The Surgeon at Memphis.

This Regiment including all the officers was captured excepting about 20 or 30 men and a few inferior officers. I had the good fortune to escape with about fifteen of my men. Only about 50 of the men have reported here and these are worn down and completely prostrated by disease and long continued handicaps & exposures. But few of them will ever be fit for duty.
I am confined here now myself from disability and cannot possibly render any efficient service during the Spring or Summer.

2^d. Such of my men as are fit for duty will be attached to other Companies at Corinth.
Such are the orders from these quarters. I am therefore without a Commission. I am now over the Conscription age (35 years) and will therefore go out of the Service at the expiration of my term next October having been mustered in for 12 Mos.
Oct 15 1861. From this time up to that date I will be receiving pay without rendering any service in return.

 A & I G O,

Some weeks ago. The formation of this Regiment, the crew of the sloop was ordered to leave them to take to sea if without endangering the Regiment of the Nation. The first case seeing the importance of having the crew stayed as surprise, in order to save the Regiment themselves to give me the opportunity of not complaining of this and requesting that the facts be laid before the Department of War. That has been done by the fact. It was a very satisfactory result. I am satisfied that it is important to the public service that the crew be considered. It is now a first-rate Regiment which has two companies and which can be increased if it was not for the fact that we have explaining the facts and arrange them to be reaching the crew. The country is quite plain that the public service is vastly promoted by it in the suspension of this Regiment until it could report to us.
I shall be able to return to my post at Fort Pickens in a few days. Should the separation of the paper to be considered the matter, and I am sure the former is correct. I should be pleased that it be considered by the committee, to be shown by way of example. The Regiment & the Company are in a state of suspension of work. The separation has already
